

Native Plant Rescue

Before you dig... call us!

A group of volunteers will come onto the property and harvest all of the native plants, and replant them in other areas around the Territory.

The goal is to protect the native plants that would otherwise be destroyed by construction.

For more information, to volunteer or to have a group of volunteers come to your property, please contact

Kristin Maracle at 396-3424